C. Reading

Read the passage. Then do the following tasks. (2,0pts)

It is very necessary for language learners to learn words when they learn a foreign language. However, they learn words in different ways. Some learners make a list and put into it the meanings of new words in their mother tongue, and try to learn them by heart. Others write one or two example sentences with each new word to remember how to use the word in the right way. In order to remember words better, some learners even write each word and its use on a small piece of paper and stick it somewhere in their house to learn it at any time. To remember important words, some learners underline or highlight only the words they want to learn. Language learners should try different ways of learning words so as to find out the best way for themselves.

Read the passage. Then do the following tasks.

It is very necessary for language learners to learn words when they learn a foreign language. However, they learn words in different ways. Some learners make a list and put into it the meanings of new words in their mother tongue, and try to learn them by heart. Others write one or two example sentences with each new word to remember how to use the word in the right way. In order to remember words better, some learners even write each word and its use on a small piece of paper and stick it somewhere in their house to learn it at any time. To remember important words, some learners underline or highlight only the words they want to learn. Language learners should try different ways of learning words so as to find out the best way for themselves.

Part 2: Read the passage then choose True (t) or False (F). (1.0 pt)

There is a question as of why students from famous universities are so smart. The answer lies in their study habits, which should be developed by all students from early ages with help from parents and schools.

First, a habit of frequent reading is what children should have. It is understandable if a child does not like reading in his early life. What parents and teachers should do is to explain the importance of daily reading to children. Simply, parents can encourage their children to bring books in their handbags to read in their leisure time. Teachers can share their book picks with their students.

1. .... Students at top universities are all born smart.
2. .... Students should start to form good study habits go to university.

Dear Mary,

We finished all our exams yesterday. The last one was History. It was horrible. I think History is really difficult because I can't remember all the facts and the dates.

I did seven subjects. The worst were Science and History. I found them very difficult. I always forget most of the things we've learnt. The best subject this year was Geography, but we only had it twice a week. We're going to Wales in the middle of August, to see my grandfather. Would you like to come with us? Mum says it's OK.

Please write and tell me about your year at school. What was it like? Were your exams easy?

Bye for now.

Peter

Part 2: Read the story “The Starfruit Tree”and answer the questions. (1 point)

Once there was a rich man living in a village. When he died, he left his two sons a fortune. But the elder brother gave his younger brother only a starfruit tree. When the fruit was ripe, an eagle came and ate the fruit. The younger brother asked the eagle not to. The eagle promised to repay him in gold and told him to make a bag to carry it. The eagle took him on its back to a place of gold. There, he filled the bag with gold. When he got home he was rich. The elder brother was surprised, so he asked his brother to explain. After hearing the story, he offered to swap his fortune for the starfruit tree, and his kind brother agreed. When the eagle came, the elder brother asked it to take him to the place of gold. The greedy brother filled a very large bag and all his pockets with gold. On the way home, because the load was too heavy, the eagle got tired and dropped him into the sea.

Tet is the biggest festival in Vietnam. To celebrate Tet, Vietnamese people make many tasty (1).....foods. The most important food (2).....Chung cakes, sausages, boiled chicken, spring rolls, and sticky rice. Chung cake is made of sticky rice, pork, green beans, and other spices, wrapped in green leaves; (3)....., this cake needs a lot of (4)..... This cake can be kept for a long time, even though the weather is often humid during Tet. Other significant foods that cannot be missed to worship the ancestors are sausages, spring rolls, and sticky rice. Because sausages are difficult to make, people often buy them from famous suppliers. (5)....., sticky rice and spring rolls are easier to prepare and must be served immediately after they are cooked, so they are often made at home.

II. Read the passage and answer these questions below. (1m)

After retiring, my uncle – a lover of the sea- took up a strange leisure activity: he spends most mornings at the beach, looking for things that the sea sends ashore. He says: It's a multi-beneficial leisure activity. I can get some exercise, blending, picking up, and walking. I can breathe the fresh air and enjoy the vastness and quietness of the sea. Sometimes I watch the children playing beach games and I feel years younger. At the same time, I can also clean the beach. It's a volunteer work, isn't it? Many of the things I pick up from the beach are still useful to someone. I clean them and sell them at the Sunday flea market in the town nearby. Do you know of any leisure activity that pays? Mine does!
